

GreatCall Announces Five $1,000 Volunteerism Grant Winners

GreatCall to donate to five winners of GreatCall Does Good charity program

SAN DIEGO – May 15, 2018 – GreatCall, the leader in connected health for active aging, today announced the winners of its GreatCall Does Good charity volunteerism program. Over the past month, people from across the U.S. submitted stories about their time helping others in organizations benefitting causes that touched their hearts and lives.

Public voting determined five winners – one for each category: arts, animal welfare, the environment, health, and education – that will receive a $1,000 donation each, courtesy of GreatCall.

The winners of the program are as follows:

- Arts & Culture – San Diego Botanic Garden, inspiring people to connect with plants and nature to promote environmental stewardship
- Animal Rights – Rescue4All, rescuing dogs that are out of options through foster homes
- Human & International Development – Feed The Children, working to end childhood hunger
- Health – Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, helping the daily lives of people with Cystic Fibrosis
- Education & Human Development – Voice of San Diego, delivering ground-breaking investigative journalism

“With this volunteerism program, we heard just how important charitable organizations are to people’s lives, both in giving back and being part of the community,” said David Inns, CEO, GreatCall. “As GreatCall is committed to connecting people to what’s important to them, we are proud to support the charitable organizations in their lives with these donations.”
